

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

THE MIDDLEFIELD RIDGE AND THE TWO VALLEYS 1

The Location of Middlefield. Its Streams, Valleys and rugged Hills. Its soil. Industries and Villages.

CHAPTER II

THE MOHICAN HUNTING GROUND 7

The Friendly Mohicans. Driven from the Hudson Valley to Massachusetts. Under the Sway of the Mohawks. River Indians at Stockbridge. Indian Mortar near Middlefield. The "Pontoosne" or West Branch of the Westfield River. The Woronoaks at Westfield. Indian Deeds of Lands. Ill defined boundaries permit Proprietors to Obtain Becket Territory not included in Deed. Indians Object to its Occupation. Claims as far east as Worthington. Indian Deeds Recorded. Watstown. The Ten Townships. Seventeen hundred Pounds paid to Satisfy Indian Claims.

CHAPTER III

THE MIGRATION TO THE BERKSHIRE HILLS 15

The Region of Abandoned Farms. The Emigration of 1790-1830. Prescott's Grant, and the Neighboring Townships. Isolation of Township No. 4. Abandoned in 1746. Indian Ravages during French and Indian War. Flight of Samuel Talyor. No. 4 resettled in 1755. Becket and Washington Incorporated. Sale of Ten Townships in Western Massachusetts. Partridgefield. Worthington. Murrayfield. Prescott's Grant. Boundaries of the Grant. Divisions of the Grant. Movements to the Northwest. Scotch-Irish Settlers. Population Overcrowded in Connecticut. Hard Times in New York, Vermont and Pennsylvania. Churchill, Rhoads, Dickson, and the Wyoming Valley. Tide of Emigration seeks quiet region of Middlefield. Rapid Settlement between 1780 and 1790. Settlers from Connecticut and Massachusetts. Connecticut Men Leaders in Local Affairs. Population at its Maximum in 1800. Emigration to the West during 1790-1830.

CHAPTER IV

THE PIONEERS AND THEIR TRAILS 28

Early Trail to Pittsfield, Passing Middlefield Center. Squatters' Trail. Becket-Worthington Trail. Taggart's first Settlers. Taggartstown. Mann and Washburn. Eggleston, Thompson and John Taylor in Murrayfield Section. Jones, Meeker and Rhoads. Samuel Taylor, Orcott, and Cochran at the Center. Early Law-suits. Coming of David Mack. Josiah Leonard and the First Cemetery. First Highways to the Plateau. Becket Establishes a Road in "North East Corner." Settlers from Hebron on Johnnyeake Hill and in Blush Hollow. Need of Through Highways to North and West. The County Highway. Failure of First Attempt to Form New Township. The Eggleston School District. "North East Corner" Residents Prominent in Becket. They Obtain Highways. Highway to Becket Center. First Village at Blossom's Tavern. Settlers in the Becket Section. Settlement along Ridgepole Road and Windsor Street. Settlement Near the Center. Settlers on Prescott's Grant. Suits against Squatters. Need of New Township. Petition of Incorporation. The Incorporation of Middlefield.

CHAPTER V

THE HILL-TOWNS IN THE REVOLUTION 51

The Loyalist Proprietors. Flight of the Tories. Experiences of John Chandler. Confiscation of Property of Conspirators. Congress at Stockbridge to Support Eastern Leaders. The Provincial Congress. Protest of Partridgefield Against the War Tax. Demands Upon the Hill-towns. Murrayfield Votes for Independence. Hill-town Vote Causes Northampton Court to be Convened by the Authority of the People. Answering the Lexington Alarm. Enlistment for Service in New York State. Equipment. Rewards and Punishments. Murrayfield Quota. Destitution at Home. Middlefield Representatives. Bennington. Romance at Chester Center. Some Massachusetts and Connecticut Soldiers among later Middlefield Residents.

CHAPTER VI

ORGANIZATION OF THE NEW COMMUNITY AND CHURCH 62

Early Disagreement Among Settlers. Critical Period in American History. Resolves of Ashfield. Distressing Economic Conditions. Antagonism Between Eastern and Western Massachusetts. Connecticut Settlers not Particularly Loyal to Government at Boston. Support of Preaching. Compulsion of the Baptists. Temporal Affairs of the Church matters of Town Business. Dissenters. Population made up of Scattered, Unrelated Elements. No Public Lands. No Men of Wealth or Political Influence. The First Town Meeting. Committee Appointed to Find Center of Township. Report Rejected. Second Committee's Report Accepted. First Highways. Formation of Congregational Church. "Different Sentiment in the Matter of Religion." First Preachers. Petition Against Calling Rev. Mr. Thompson. Movement to Establish a Presbyterian Church. Compromises. Shays' Rebellion. Arrest of Captain Mack. Insurgents Surrender at Middlefield. Failure to Call Mr. Robinson. Meetinghouse Site Question again Raised. New Site near Bissell Phelps' House. Vote Reconsidered. Committees of Outsiders Summoned. Activity of the Baptists. Mr. Parker Declines a Call. New Site Proposed. New Crossroad. Three Sites. Site by "Beech Staddle" Selected. Eastern Faction Appeased by New Crossroad to Blossom Corner. Building the Meetinghouse. The Baptist Petition. Town Petition for Abatement of Taxes. Baptist Petition Denied. Removal of Certain Baptists. First Town-meeting in the Meetinghouse. Completion of the Structure. Seating the Meetinghouse. Call of Rev. Jonathan Nash. Provisions for Education. Singing Schools. School Districts. Schoolhouses. Conditions in Pioneer Schools. Some Educated Men of Middlefield.

CHAPTER VII

THE PERIOD OF ISOLATED FARMING 90

Primitive Conditions among Pioneers. Community and Families Dependent upon Themselves for Necessities. Few Inland Manufactories. Industries Carried On by Local Craftsmen and in Farmers' Families. Early Craftsmen in Middlefield. Sawmills. Township well Occupied by Settlers. No Village at the Center. Taverns. Liquors. Taylor's and Blossom's Taverns. Mack's Tavern. Blush's Tavern at the Center. Oliver Smith, Tavern-keeper. Dickson's Tavern. Services Rendered Paid for in Work and Produce. Stores Started as Adjuncts to Taverns. Raisings. The Era of Turnpikes. Cost of Improvements brings Failure. The Chester Turnpike. Dalton and Middlefield Turnpike. Rates of Toll. Burden of of Toll Upon Through Traffic. Mack's Store. The Co-operative Store at the Center. Herrick's Fulling Mill. Blush's and Church's Fulling Mills. Demand for Broadcloth. Uriah Church becomes a Manufacturer. Builds New Shop at Blush Hollow. Amasa Blush enlarges his Plant. Soapstone Quarrying at Smith Hollow. War of 1812. Middlefield's Share in the War. Fortunes of the Congregational Church. Position of the Baptists and Methodists. The Baptists Build a Church. The Methodist "Bethel" in the Den. Emigration to the West. New York. Ohio. The Becket Land Company. Emigration, not Detrimental to the Town.

CHAPTER VIII

EARLY FARMHOUSES AND THEIR BUILDERS 114

Pioneers Soon Built Permanent Homes. Hand Methods of Fashioning Lumber. The Raisings. The Permanence of Early Structures. The Builders of Middlefield. Picturesque Settings for Houses. Examples of Single-story Houses. Local Specimens of Gambrel-roof Houses. The Two-story Gable House. Hip-roof Houses. The Tavern Type of Construction. Interior Arrangement. The Large Central Chimney. Fire Places. The Two-chimney Style. Some Peculiar Houses. Interior Decoration. Houses Built for Defense Against Winter's Cold. Barns and their Location. Paint. The First Meetinghouse. Its Typical Connecticut Style. Interior Plan. The Gallery. The Appearance of Middlefield in Early Days.

CHAPTER IX

FACTORY VILLAGE, THE CENTER AND "THE SWITCH" 141

The Rise of an Industrial Population. Villages Spring Up under Influence of Trade and Manufacturing. Woolen Business Hampered by Flood of English Goods. Decline in Sheep Raising. High Tariff Helps the Blush and Church Industries. Middlefield Becomes an Important Wool Growing Section. New Blush Factory. Water Power Facilities. Growth of Factory Village. Factory Workers from the Farms. Increase in Sheep Raising. Station at "The Switch." Separate School District for Factory Village. Church's Lower Mill and Tenements. Mountain Mills Gold Band Cloth Popular in the South. Busy Times During Civil War. New Buildings in Blush Hollow. English, Irish, Germans and French Canadians as Factory Workers. Satisfactory Working Conditions. Growth at The Center. Solomon Root Buys Co-operative Store. Mack Store moved to Center. New Houses at Center. The Button Shop. Stores have Large Trade in Pork and Cheese. The Railroad. Congregational Church Rebuilt. The New Baptist Church. The Methodist Church. The Center School. The Parsonages. "The Switch." John Mann's Paper Mill. Firewood and Charcoal Industries. Half the Population of the Town Living in Villages in 1870.

CHAPTER X

MID-CENTURY MIDDLEFIELD, 1815-1870 161

Demand for Better Thoroughfares. The Pontoosuc Turnpike. Proposed Route Along Factory Brook. Becket-Washington Route Chosen. Hon. Julius Rockwell's Impressions of Turnpike Scenery. New Highways. Canals Proposed. Railroad Projects. The Western Railroad. Middlefield Denies Permission to Build Road Along Factory Brook. Difficulties of Construction. Effect of Proximity to the Railroad. Deacon Ingham's Schools for Railroad Workers. Railroad Equipment. Old Becket Road of 1780 Abandoned. Asa Smith's Tavern in Smith Hollow. Postal Facilities. Revival of Soapstone Quarrying. Addison Everett's Wooden Bowl Industry. Tanneries. Cattle Raising. The Highland Agricultural Society. First Cattle Show. Gift of Fair Grounds from Matthew Smith. Cattle Show in 1858. Huntington Vainly Opposes Incorporation of the Society at Middlefield. Death of Dr. Church. The Agricultural Hall. Addresses and Social Features. Entertaining Guests. Impressions of Experts. High Grade Stock Owned in Middlefield. Horse Racing. Middlefield Proposed as Site for the Agricultural College. The Question of Slavery. Anti-Slavery Movement. The Civil War. War-time Activities in Middlefield. Soldiers. The Sanitary Commission. Fortunes of Church Societies. Political and Religious Factions. New Church Building at the Center. The Methodist Society. Education. Support of Higher Education for Women. Middlefield Women at Mt. Holyoke Female Seminary. Select Schools. Teachers From Among Middlefield's Sons and Daughters. Mrs. Newton's School for Young Women. Dramatic and Musical Interests.

CHAPTER XI

BUILDING DURING THE INDUSTRIAL PERIOD 189

Factory Buildings at Blush Hollow. Tenement Houses. The Railroad Station. The Classic Influence. Houses with Gable End toward Road. The Era of Air-tight Stoves. New Interior Arrangement of Rooms. Some Builders Follow Old Styles. Rebuilding of Old Houses. The Story-and-a-half House. Rebuilding the Congregational Church. "Jim Church's Pepper Box." The Franklin Stowell Spire. The Center Schoolhouse. The Baptist Church. Church Interiors. Everett's Queer House. District Schoolhouses. Coming of French Influence. Houses Built by the Mill Owners.

CHAPTER XII

THE FLOODS AND THE INDUSTRIAL DECLINE 205

Beginning of Industrial Decline. The Freshet of 1835. Flood of 1874. Breaking of the Upper Reservoirs. Warning Given by Deacon Meacham, Pease, Metcalf and Brown. Damage at the Chamberlain Farm. Damage to Church Bros.' Property. Destruction of Blush's Factory, and West's Gristmill. Loss of Railroad Arch. Damage at "The Switch," Chester and Huntington. The Dam Rebuilt and Business Resumed. The Centennial Celebration. The Officers and Speakers. The Service of Middlefield to her Sons and Daughters. Effect of Emigration. Hard Times for the Churches. End of the Woollen Industry. The Flood of 1900. Damage at Factory Village, and along the "Switch" Road. Loss of Railroad Arch. Removal of Buildings from Factory Village. Decline in Population of Middlefield.

CHAPTER XIII

MIDDLEFIELD IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY 226

Middlefield becomes a strictly agricultural community. Empty houses at the Center in Winter. Decline of Trade. Disappearance of Old Families. Influence of Metcalf J. Smith. Old Family Names still extant. Descendants of Old Families among Summer Residents. New-comers among Prominent Citizens. Changes at the Center. The new Church. Its Architecture. The new Town Hall. The Wayside Lodge. New Summer Houses. The Bungalows. Summer Colony in the Pease District. New Buildings at Blush Hollow. Dwellers at "the Switch." The Middlefield Spirit of Co-operation. Myron L. Crane. Leaders in public affairs and Community Life. Massachusetts' first Woman Selectman. Women of Middlefield. The Union of the Churches. The Pastors. The Library. The Loyal Legion. The Middlefield Progressive Club. The Middlefield Choral Club. The Middlefield Country Club. Its part in inaugurating the History of Middlefield. The Grange. The Middlefield Cemetery Association. Middlefield in the World War. The Roll of Honor. Activities of the Red Cross. Liberty Loans Oversubscribed. The Middlefield Improvement Association. The State Road. Condition of the Farmer. Hopeful outlook for the Future. The Spirit of Hospitality. The helpful co-operation of Summer Residents.

CHAPTER XIV

HISTORY OF THE MIDDLEFIELD CHURCHES 255

The Congregational Church. First Religious Services. Church Incorporated in 1783. Charter Members. Deacons. Installation of Rev. Jonathan Nash. His Character and Service. Increase in Membership. Watch Care and Discipline. Dismissal of Pastor Nash. His Death. Pastorate of Rev. Samuel Parker. He Resigns to Go with Marcus Whitman to the Oregon Country. Pastorate of Rev. John H. Bisbee. Pastorate of Rev. Edward Clark. The Parsonage. Rebuilding the Church. Pastorate of Rev. Moody Harrington. Pastorate of Rev. Lewis Bridgeman. Resolutions Upon the Death of John Brown. Contributions to Missions. Dismissal of Mr. Bridgeman. The New Parsonage. Pastorate of Rev. John Dodge. Pastorate of Rev. Chas. M. Pierce. Decrease in Church's Income. Various Short Pastorates. Invitation to Baptists to Worship with Congregationalists. Pastorate of Rev. Lucien C. Kimball. Gift of the Chapel. Pastorate of Rev. Herbert A. Youtz. Church Burned During Pastorate of Rev. Henry M. Bowden. Rebuilding the Church During Pastorate of Rev. Seelye Bryant. Various Short Pastorates. Prominent Church Members. Church Music. Choirs and Musical Instruments. Enoch Dwight Graves.

The Baptist Church. Early Baptist Following. Baptist Church in West Parish of Partridgefield. Middlefield Baptists Build Church in 1817. Constituent Members. Pastorate of Rev. Isaac Child. Paying the Pastor's Salary. The Church and its Services. Pastorate of Rev. Erastus Andrews. Pastorate of Rev. Henry Archibald. Rev. Orson Spencer Turns Mormon. Church at Center Built During Pastorate of Rev. Foranda Bestor. The Parsonage. Various Short Pastorates. Increase in Membership. Rev. Joseph M. Rockwood, Last Pastor. His Resignation. Baptist Church Becomes Part of Union Church. Prominent Members.

The Methodist Episcopal Church. Early Class Leaders in the Den. The "Bethel" Built. Large Congregations. Church Moved to Center. Decline of the Denomination. Rev. Alexander Dickson. Prominent Members.

CHAPTER XV

MIDDLEFIELD PERSONALITIES AND TRADITIONS 299

Prominence of David Mack. His Education. His Success as a Merchant. His Thrift. Deacon Newton. The Pease Family. Dan Pease. The Wright Family. Nathan Wright,

Jr. The Root Family. Daniel Root. Solomon Root. Laura (Mack) Root. Harvey Root. Prominent Families in 1850. Calvin Smith's Large Family. Dwellers in Smith Hollow. Matthew Smith's Family. Matthew Smith, 8th. The McElwain Family. Marvin Robbins. The Church Brothers. The Blush Family. Captain Ambrose Loveland. The Old Hearse. Deacon Leonard, Coffin-maker. Solomon Ingham. Deacon Alexander Ingham. Aunt Priscilla Steward. Deacon Amasa Graves. Dwight Graves, the Musician. Aunt Betty Pinney. Aunt Sally Dickson. Orrin Pease. Wild Animals. John Gordon's Experience. The Raisings. A Race for a Jug. Pinney, Ward and Meacham. Training Days. The Town Poor. Johnny-cake Hill. Factory Village Life. Job Robbins and Captain Brackett. George Suriner's Fright. Daniel Leach. Hiram Leach. Daniel Leach, Jr. Town Politics. Political Factions. Joke on Ambrose Newton. Middlefield's Sons away from Home. Azariah Smith. Recollections of Andrew Dickson White. Successful Business Men. Hamilton Bitters. Technical School Graduates. Samuel Bissell. Teachers in the Smith Family. Azariah Smith's Home Week Poem. Azariah S. Root. Edward King. Middlefield Women of Note. Mrs. Helen (Smith) Warren. Physicians from Middlefield. Dr. Ebenezer Emmons. Dr. Jefferson Church. Dr. Cynthia Smith. Dr. Frank Whittemore. Doctors who practiced in Middlefield. Dr. James U. Church. Dr. Bidwell. Treatment of the Insane. Dr. E. G. Wheeler. Amos W. Cross, Teacher. Poem, The Middlefield Flood.

APPENDIX

A

HISTORY OF PRESCOTT'S GRANT	343
-----------------------------------	-----

B

DOCUMENTS CONNECTED WITH THE HISTORY OF MIDDLEFIELD	360
---	-----

C

DIVISIONS OF LAND IN MIDDLEFIELD	370
--	-----

D

TOWN OFFICERS AND REPRESENTATIVES	372
---	-----

E

WAR RECORDS	377
-------------------	-----

F

ORIGIN OF SETTLERS	387
--------------------------	-----

G

GROWTH AND DECLINE OF POPULATION	395
--	-----

H

BIBLIOGRAPHY	397
--------------------	-----

I

NOTES AND GENEALOGIES OF PIONEER FAMILIES	399
---	-----

INDEX

INDEX OF NAMES	655
----------------------	-----